Form W-4 (2025)

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2025 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2024 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2025. You had no federal income tax liability in 2024 if (1) your total tax on line 24 on your 2024 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 27, 28, and 29), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2025 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions above by writing "Exempt" on Form W-4 in the space below Step 4(c). Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 17, 2026.

Your privacy. Steps 2(c) and 4(a) ask for information regarding income you received from sources other than the job associated with this Form W-4. If you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b) as an alternative; if you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c) as an alternative.

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

- 1. Are submitting this form after the beginning of the year;
- 2. Expect to work only part of the year;
- 3. Have changes during the year in your marital status, number of jobs for you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly), or number of dependents, or changes in your deductions or credits:
- 4. Receive dividends, capital gains, social security, bonuses, or business income, or are subject to the Additional Medicare Tax or Net Investment Income Tax; or
- 5. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

TIP: Have your most recent pay stub(s) from this year available when using the estimator to account for federal income tax that has already been withheld this year. At the beginning of next year, use the estimator again to recheck your withholding.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work. Submit a separate Form W-4 for each job.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

Instead, if you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. This step provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 501, Dependents, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information. You can also include other tax credits for which you are eligible in this step, such as the foreign tax credit and the education tax credits. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4 (optional).

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2025 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for student loan interest and IRAs.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe.

Form W-4 (2025)

Step 2(b)—Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job. To be accurate, submit a new Form W-4 for all other jobs if you have not updated your withholding since 2019.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

1	Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4. Using the "Higher Paying Job" row and the "Lower Paying Job" column, find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 1. Then, skip to line 3	1	$
2	Three jobs. If you and/or your spouse have three jobs at the same time, complete lines 2a, 2b, and 2c below. Otherwise, skip to line 3.
	a Find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 using the annual wages from the highest paying job in the "Higher Paying Job" row and the annual wages for your next highest paying job in the "Lower Paying Job" column. Find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 2a	2a	$
	b Add the annual wages of the two highest paying jobs from line 2a together and use the total as the wages in the "Higher Paying Job" row and use the annual wages for your third job in the "Lower Paying Job" column to find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 and enter this amount on line 2b	2b	$
	c Add the amounts from lines 2a and 2b and enter the result on line 2c	2c	$
3	Enter the number of pay periods per year for the highest paying job. For example, if that job pays weekly, enter 52; if it pays every other week, enter 26; if it pays monthly, enter 12, etc.	3
4	Divide the annual amount on line 1 or line 2c by the number of pay periods on line 3. Enter this amount here and in Step 4(c) of Form W-4 for the highest paying job (along with any other additional amount you want withheld)	4	$
	Step 4(b)—Deductions Worksheet (Keep for your records.)			///
1	Enter an estimate of your 2025 itemized deductions (from Schedule A (Form 1040)). Such deductions may include qualifying home mortgage interest, charitable contributions, state and local taxes (up to $10,000), and medical expenses in excess of 7.5% of your income	1	$
2	Enter: • $30,000 if you're married filing jointly or a qualifying surviving spouse • $22,500 if you're head of household • $15,000 if you're single or married filing separately	2	$
3	If line 1 is greater than line 2, subtract line 2 from line 1 and enter the result here. If line 2 is greater than line 1, enter "-0-"	3	$
4	Enter an estimate of your student loan interest, deductible IRA contributions, and certain other adjustments (from Part II of Schedule 1 (Form 1040)). See Pub. 505 for more information	4	$
5	Add lines 3 and 4. Enter the result here and in Step 4(b) of Form W-4	5	$

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Internal Revenue Code sections 3402(f)(2) and 6109 and their regulations require you to provide this information; your employer uses it to determine your federal income tax withholding. Failure to provide a properly completed form will result in your being treated as a single person with no other entries on the form; providing fraudulent information may subject you to penalties. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation; to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and territories for use in administering their tax laws; and to the Department of Health and Human Services for use in the National Directory of New Hires. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Code section 6103.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.

Net Checks to Abandoned Property

Your uncashed net checks:

Your net checks will be sent to the state if left uncashed for longer than a year as abandoned property. You agree that any net checks being remitted to abandoned property for failure to cash will be subject up to a $30 stop pay fee which is deducted out of the uncashed check. If your uncashed amount is less than $30, we will only absorb that amount. No additional charge is added to equal the $30. If you do not want to lose your money to abandoned property, please cash all your live, net checks.

Standards of Conduct and Employment:

Because everyone may not have the same idea about proper workplace conduct, it is helpful to adopt and enforce rules all can follow. Unacceptable conduct may subject the offender to disciplinary action, up to and including discharge, in the Company's sole discretion. The Company will address each situation individually.

The following are examples of some, but not all, conduct which can be considered unacceptable:

- 1. The Company agrees to enter into an employer relationship with the Employee. Employee acknowledges and understands that the company will be responsible for payroll, withholding and timely payment of all applicable employer and employee statutory taxes and insurances. These include social security, unemployment, disability, and workers' compensation if applicable.
- 2. Compensation for work performed by the employee will be at a rate mutually agreed upon by the Company and the employee with consideration given to minimum wage law.
- 3. It is understood that employment is "at-will" which means that your employment can be terminated with or without cause, and with or without notice, at any time, at the option of either the Company or yourself, except as otherwise provided by law.
- 4. Employment is subject to the completion of the Employment Eligibility Verification (Form 1-9). Failure to provide acceptable document(s) to the Company at the time of hire, or in a timely manner, will result in termination of employment.
- 5. Firearms or weapons are not allowed on the employer's premises. (If applicable)
- 6. Reporting for duty under the influence of alcohol or drugs.
- 7. Possession, manufacture, distribution, sale, transfer, dispensation or use of alcohol or illegal drugs in the workplace.
- 8. Bringing weapons into the workplace.
- 9. Sleeping on the job during working hours.
- 10. Negligence and inattention to job duties.
- 11. Fighting or threatening violence in the workplace.
- 12. Boisterous or disruptive activity in the workplace.
- 13. Immoral, illegal, or intimidating comments or actions toward co-workers, clients, or vendors.
- 14. Working at an unacceptable speed or level of production.
- 15. Violating Health or Safety rules, including failure to report an unsafe working condition or accident.
- 16. Willful acts of disregard for personnel and company policies and/or procedures.

Employee Copy

- 17. Violations of traffic laws while in a company-owned vehicle or while performing official company business.
- 18. Stealing company, co-worker, client, or vendor property.
- 19. Willfully damaging, defacing, or destroying company, co-worker, client, or vendor property.
- 20. Refusing to follow a supervisor's instructions or direction regarding work duties.
- 21. Performing personal business on company time.
- 22. Falsification of company records, including but not limited to the Employment Application, Insurance Application, Service Ticket, Expense Reports, Medical Records, and Employee Time Records.
- 23. Accepting any monetary gratuities from vendors or clients.
- 24. Excessive use of company telephone for personal business. This includes personal or long-distance telephone calls.
- 25. Leaving your work area during your work shift without notifying and obtaining approval of your supervisor.
- 26. Any other violation of company work rules or policy.
- 27. This policy is not intended to preclude or dissuade employees from engaging in activities protected by state or federal law, including the National Labor Relations Act, such as discussing wages, benefits or other terms and conditions of employment, forming, joining or supporting labor unions, bargaining collectively through representatives of their choosing, raising complaints about working conditions for their own and their fellow employees' mutual aid or protection or legally required activities.

Workplace Harassment Policy

It is the Policy of My HR Professionals and the worksite employer that all employees should be treated in a respectful, non- discriminatory manner and should be able to work in an environment free of harassment. The Company's Policy prohibits sexual harassment as well as harassment based on race, color, age, disability, religion, national origin or any other characteristic protected by State or Federal law.

This Policy applies to all Company employees. This policy also prohibits harassment of employees by contractors, customers or vendors, who are conducting business with our employees, and similarly prohibits harassment by our employees of such contractors, customers or vendors. All supervisors, as a part of their job requirements, are responsible for preventing and eliminating harassment in their respective departments or work areas.

Sexual harassment, includes, but is not limited to, making unwelcome sexual advances (verbal or physical) and requests for sexual favors when either (1) submission to such conduct is made an explicit or implicit term or condition of employment; or (2) submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as a basis for tangible employment actions or decisions; or (3) such conduct has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment. Some examples of conduct which may constitute prohibited harassment are: explicit sexual propositions, unwelcome physical touching, obscene gestures, sexually explicit pictures, objects or computer programs; vulgar or obscene jokes; racial, religious or national origin epithets, jokes or signs; demeaning comments about a person's disability. Sexual Harassment can occur between two people of the same gender.

It is every employee's responsibility to cooperate with this Policy and report violations of this Policy that they experience or witness. The Company cannot investigate and remedy harassment unless you bring it to the Company's attention. Employees who experience or witness behavior they believe to be in violation of this Policy should promptly report such behavior to:

- Your immediate supervisor
- Your supervisor's boss
- The Owner
- My HR Professionals Representative: (479) 474-7752

My HR Professionals will gather basic information, ask questions, and provide a General Intake Form for you to provide additional information in writing. Employees who violate this Workplace Harassment Policy are subject to discipline up to and including immediate termination.

Company Policy prohibits retaliation against employees who in good faith report incidents of sexual or other types of prohibited harassment, or who become involved in investigation of a harassment complaint. Any employee who believes they are being subjected to prohibited retaliation should report the matter immediately to your Supervisor, the Owner, and/or My HR Professionals.

Workplace Bullying

The Company defines bullying as "repeated inappropriate behavior, either direct or indirect, whether verbal, physical or otherwise, conducted by one or more persons against another or others, at the place of work and/or during employment."

The purpose of this Policy is to communicate to all employees, including supervisors, that the Company will not tolerate bullying behavior. Employees found in violation of this Policy will be disciplined up to and including termination.

Bullying may be intentional or unintentional. However, it must be noted that where an allegation of bullying is made, the intention of the alleged bully is irrelevant and will not be given consideration when handing out discipline. As in sexual harassment, it is the effect of the behavior upon the individual that is important. The Company considers the following types of behavior examples of bullying (this is not an all-inclusive list):

- Verbal bullying: Slandering, ridiculing or maligning a person or their family; persistent name calling that is hurtful, insulting or humiliating; using a person as the butt of jokes; abusive and offensive remarks.
- Physical bullying: Pushing, shoving, kicking, poking, tripping, assault or threat of physical assault; damage to a person's work area or property.
- Gesture bullying: Nonverbal threatening gestures or glances that convey threatening messages.
- Exclusion: Socially or physically excluding or disregarding a person in work-related activities.

If you have any questions concerning this Policy, please contact your supervisor, the Owner, and/or My HR Professionals.

On the Job Injury Policy

Step 1:

Report Accident to your Supervisor/Manager

Step 2:

Complete Employee's Notice of Injury Report Provided by your supervisor/manager. If this is not possible due to the severity of the injury, it can be completed after treatment is received. If no treatment is necessary or the injury is only minor and treated by your employer, you MUST still complete the appropriate form.

Step 3:

If Professional Medical Treatment is necessary, you MUST HAVE authorization from your supervisor before treatment. Your supervisor will direct you to the designated and approved clinic/hospital. If you do not have transportation or are unable to drive due to the severity of injury, inform your supervisor for other arrangements to be made. All work-related injuries will require a drug test at the place of treatment.

It is a Class D Felony for any person or entity who willfully and knowingly makes any material false statement or representation for the purpose of obtaining any benefit or payment, or for the purpose of defeating or avoiding workers' compensation coverage or avoiding payment of the proper insurance premium (or who aids and abets for either of said purposes).

HIPAA Special Enrollment Notice

This notice is an explanation of special enrollment period to enroll in/cancel group insurance coverage outside of your group's annual open enrollment period.

If you are declining enrollment for yourself or your dependents (including your spouse) because of other employer group health plan coverage, you may be able to enroll yourself and your dependents in this plan in the future if you or your dependents lose eligibility for that other group coverage (involuntary loss of coverage) or if the employer stops contributing toward your or your dependents' other group coverage. However, you must request enrollment within 30 days after your or your dependents' other coverage ends or after the employer stops contributing toward the other coverage.

In addition, if you have a new dependent as a result of marriage, birth, adoption, or placement for adoption, you may be able to enroll yourself and your dependents. However, you must request enrollment within 30 days after the marriage, birth, adoption, or placement for adoption.

Effective April 1, 2009, the Children's Health Insurance Program Reauthorization Act of 2009 creates two new special enrollment rights for employees and/or their dependents. In addition to the special enrollment rights set forth above, all group health plans must also permit eligible employees and their dependent(s) to enroll in an employer plan if the employee requests enrollment under the group health plan within 60 days of the occurrence of the following events:

- 1. Termination of Medicaid or State Children's Health Insurance Program (SCHIP) as a result of loss of eligibility- If you or your dependent(s) lose coverage under Medicaid or a state child health plan, you may request to enroll yourself and/or your dependent(s) in our group health plan not later than 60 days after the date coverage ends under Medicaid or the state child health plan.
- 2. Eligibility for state premium assistance under Medicaid or CHIP- If you and/or your dependent(s) become eligible for financial assistance from Medicaid or a state child health plan, you may request to enroll yourself and/or your dependent(s) under our group health plan, provided that your request is made not later than 60 days after the date that Medicaid or the state child health plan determines that you and/or your dependent(s) are eligible for such financial assistance. If you and/or your dependent(s) are currently enrolled in our group health plan, you have the option of terminating your and/or your dependent's (s') enrollment in our group health plan and enroll in Medicaid or a state child health plan.

Please note that once you terminate your enrollment in our group health plan, your dependent's (s') enrollment will be also terminated.

All special enrollment requests are processed at the discretion of the insurance carrier and the insurance carrier reserves the right to approve or deny a request after review. The carrier also reserves the right to request proof of the qualifying event either at the time the special enrollment request is made or at any time thereafter.

To request special enrollment or obtain more information, please contact My HR Professionals at My HR Professionals Benefits Department P.O. BOX 6040, Van Buren, AR 72956 Phone: (479) 474-7752 or (800) 940-8706 Fax: (844) 224-0294 Email: benefits@myhrpros.com, Website: www.myhrprofessionals.com
